

I said something really bad
That's not what I meant to say
I know now you must be mad
Will you forgive me someday
I tried to say something nice
Help me what else can I do
Last time I take their advice
I don't like to fight with you
Your beauty shines so bright
I hope again you'll be mine
I know for sure that is right
If not that's okay I'll be fine
I'm hurt here can't you see
All I want is you with me
